DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant (s)

1. This action is responsive to the following communications: amendment A filed on 10/14/03.
2. This application has been reconsidered. Claims 1-40 are pending.

Priority

3. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wright et al. (Wright) (US 5,426,594).

With regard to claims 1 and 31, Wright discloses a method of selecting and delivering a greeting card (col 1, lines 6-11), including: obtaining a printed document with details of a selection of available greeting cards (col 4, lines 18-24; col 5, lines 51-57), the printed document having at least one user-interactive element with which a user interacts to select a card using a sensing device adapted to transmit interaction data to a computer system (col 4, line 17 – col 7, line 11); indicating selection of a card using the sensing device (col 6, lines 43-53); including a message using the sensing device (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5); and sending the card to a recipient address via the computer system (col 7, lines 6-11).

With regard to claims 2, 17 and 32, Wright also discloses wherein the details are presented as a list of card categories and images of the greeting cards of each category are printed for viewing in a further document by selecting the respective category using the sensing device (col 4, lines 18-24; col 5, lines 10-22).

With regard to claims 3 and 18, Wright also discloses wherein the step of including a message comprises selecting a message from a list of messages (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5).

With regard to claims 4 and 19, Wright also discloses wherein the list of messages is provided in a further document which is printed after the card is selected, the further document having associated user-interactive elements for selection of the message (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5).

With regard to claims 5, 20 and 34-35, Wright also discloses wherein the step of including a message comprises recording a customized message applied with the device to a message region of the document by capturing associated interaction data transmitted during movement of the device (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5).

With regard to claims 6 and 21, Wright also discloses wherein the step of sending the card includes selecting the recipient address, using the device, from an address list provided with user-interactive elements (col 11, lines 42-57).

Art Unit: 2622

With regard to claims 7 and 22, Wright also discloses wherein the step of sending the card includes writing the recipient address in an address field of a form using the sensing device and capturing the writing by recording the associated interaction data (col 11, lines 42-57).

With regard to claims 8 and 23, Wright also discloses wherein the recipient address corresponds to a printer address and the card is delivered by printing at that address (col 7, lines 36).

With regard to claims 9 and 24, Wright also discloses wherein the recipient address corresponds to an electronic mail address and an image of the card is delivered to that address (col 7, lines 6-11).

With regard to claims 10 and 25, Wright also discloses wherein the recipient address corresponds to a street address and the card is sent to a proximate mail service for printing and delivery to the street address (col 7, lines 6-41).

With regard to claims 11 and 26, Wright also discloses wherein a preview of the card and message is provided in a further document for review prior to sending (col 6, lines 53-55).

With regard to claims 12 and 27, Wright also discloses wherein the document includes coded data indicative of an identity of the document and of the at least one interactive element, and wherein the method includes receiving, in the computer system, indicating data from the sensing device regarding the identity of the document and a position of the sensing device relative to the document in order to identify the document and determine when the sensing device is used to interact with the element (col 5, lines 4-35).

With regard to claims 13 and 28, Wright also discloses including receiving, in the computer system, movement data regarding movement of the sensing device relative to the document (col 5, lines 4-45).

With regard to claims 14 and 29, Wright also discloses including the sensing device sensing its movement relative to the document using the coded data, and identifying the request in the computer system from the movement being at least partially within a zone associated with the interactive element (col 5, lines 4-45).

With regard to claims 15, 30 and 39, Wright also discloses which includes printing the coded data to be substantially invisible in the visible spectrum (col 5, lines 4-45).

With regard to claim 16, Wright discloses a method of enabling selection and delivery of a greeting card (col 1, lines 6-11), including: providing a printed document with details of a selection of available greeting cards (col 4, lines 18-24; col 5, lines 51-57), the printed document having at least one user-interactive element with which a user interacts to select a card using a sensing device adapted to transmit interaction data to a computer system (col 4, line 17 – col 7, line 11); indicating selection of a card using the sensing device (col 6, lines 43-53); including a message using the sensing device (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5); and sending the card to a recipient address via the computer system (col 7, lines 6-11).

Art Unit: 2622

With regard to claim 33, Wright also discloses wherein the message is a written message and the computer system is adapted to digitally capture the written message by recording associated interaction data transmitted by the sensing device (col 6, line 53 – col 7, line 5).

With regard to claim 36, Wright also discloses wherein the sensing device includes a marking nip (col 6, lines 62-64).

With regard 37, Wright also discloses wherein the document is printed on a surface of a surface-defining structure and wherein the printer prints the document on demand (col 7, lines 31-36).

With regard to claim 38, Wright also discloses wherein the printer is arranged to print the coded data at the same time as printing the document on a surface-defining structure (col 7, lines 31-36).

With regard to claim 40, Wright also discloses including a database for keeping a retrievable record of each document generated, each document being retrievable by using its identity, as included in its coded data (col 3, lines 58-61; col 5, lines 10-57).

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 10/14/03 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that Wright does not teach printing a document that includes details of the selection of available greeting cards and providing an interactive element with which the user interacts to select a card using a sensing device.

Art Unit: 2622

Wright teaches in col 4, lines 18-24 that the information for can be viewed on a display or printed. This clearly meets the limitation of providing a printed document. Wright further teaches in col 4, line 17 – col 7, line 11 that sound device, stylist or keyboard can be used to enter information about the greeting card. This clearly meets the limitation of interacting with a sensing device.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
